

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Deactivation of Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Art

The BFA was deactivated due to staffing constraints due to relocations of faculty

The faculty can now offer a curriculum with sufficient courses to ensure timely progress

Thank you for your assistance with the reactivation of this program.

Sincerely,

Harvey G. Stenger
President

 Additional information found on attached memo **

DATE: April 21, 2014
TO: Faculty Senate Executive Committee

FROM: [Handwritten signature]
RE: Reinstating BFA program

Dear colleagues:

I wish to address the concerns you have regarding Art D
request the re-instatement of the BFA degree.

On December 6, 2013, faculty which was suspended in 2009.

Department of Art and Design consists of 6 which may teach in more than one discipline.

Drawing concentration:

- John Thomson, associate professor
- Kathryn Niles, full-time adjunct professor
- Alexandra Davis, full-time adjunct professor

Please see also, assistant professor

Painting concentration:

- James Bohary, professor
- Natalija Mijatovic, associate professor

Sculpture concentration:

- James Stark, associate professor
- Ronald Gonzalez, professor
- Frank Chang, full-time permanent lecturer

Graphic Design concentration:

- Blazo Kovacevic, assistant professor
- [Handwritten name], full-time permanent professor
- Cindy Blackman, full-time adjunct professor

Printmaking concentration:

- Alexandra Davis, full-time adjunct professor

Photography (photo construction)

Co-ops: full-time adjunct professor prepared for the careers in another industry

more options to choose from

BFA requirements:

Four introductory courses = 16 credits

Five elective courses from the intermediate level = 20 credits

Five studio courses at the intermediate level = 20 credits

Three art history courses = 12 credits

Seminar in Studio Art (ADTC 400)

BFA program = 1 credit (x 4)

Senior Exhibition Seminar (ADTC 400)

TOTAL 79 CREDITS

in reducing the number of art majors great volume in the future by the name of the BFA

there are currently 177 art majors. We anticipate approximately 26 BFA in future years.

I hope you will find this information helpful. should you have more questions I will

I thank you for your continued