

The primary focus of Global Interdependencies (G) courses is to study how two or more distinctive world