ALTERNATE DUTY PROGRAM

New York State and several public employee unions have negotiated Alternate Duty Programs as part of the employer-provided benefits associated with workers' compensation disabilities.

	These programs allow employees in the affected bargaining units, who have been disabled assignments that meet both the needs of the agency and the medical limitations of the employees.

	Employees benefit from these programs by returning to work and becoming productive more quickly, thus enhancing the recuperation process. Agencies benefit from these programs because they have the services of employees who would otherwise be unable to return to

When an employee's level of disability is classified at 50 percent or less (mildly or moderately disabled) and the employee is within 60 days of full recovery, he/she is qualified for an attraction provided on this form to design work.
